

English

Writing: Narrative description narrative - point of view of character, balanced discussion, poetry writing and newspaper article.

Comprehension: weekly texts – focus on inferential understanding.

SPaG: fronted adverbials, synonyms, poetic devices.

Reading: Personal and class reader

Philosophy Developing critical thinking skills when considering big questions including justification of war, meaning of freedom, autocracy v democracy, meaning of happiness

PSHE Rights and Responsibilities: Children's rights, Animal rights, Media portrayal, Choices

Maths

Number: Long multiplication and division. Decimal, Fraction and Percentage relationships extended.

Shape and Geometry: Transformations. Angles and lines

Interpreting Data: Line graphs, tally charts and Averages

Geography

Climate: Factors affecting climate, Different climate zones
Study of life in different climates, including extreme climates.
Climate change.

French with Mme Geller

Revision of prior vocabulary and structures

The Weather

Form Five

Spring Term Curriculum Map 2019

History

Ancient Greece: The Parthenon Marbles – exploring the controversy. Democracy, then and now.

The Victorians: Examining a range of sources to draw conclusions about life in the past, especially for children.

IT & Computing

Lego WeDo: Programming models created from Lego.

Film making with iMovie.

PE & Games

Ball Skills and team games - Mr Taiwo. (Hyde Park).

Hockey in Kensington Leisure Centre –Mr Taiwo.

Music

Learning about musical intervals and how to make melodies. Listening to music from the Romantic period, with pieces by Wagner and Chopin. Looking at different genres of music and learning about Opera and Ballet.

Science

Shape & Space: The Planets, the sun, the moon. Day and night and the seasons

Forces & Motion: Balanced and unbalanced forces, Air resistance, water resistance and friction. Levers and pulleys

Art with Miss Carroll

Early modernist paintings of Russian-American artist Marc Chagall, discussing the power of symbolism in art and creating their own work in response.